OBJECTIVE

Hi, I'm jamie, a 27 year old graphic designer from New Zealand. I relocated to Tokyo two years ago to co-found and direct all visual art projects for a company entitled Dosing; however, my main goal in Japan is to broaden my artistic network and improve overall as an artist. I aspire to work with other driven artists in which I can instruct and learn from while growing as a professional and an individual alike. I am a highly motivated worker who is equipped with a broad range of useful abilities as well as natural creative talents.

EXPERIENCE

2016 - PRESENT

DOISING (JPN) / CO-FOUNDER / ART DIRECTOR

I am a co-founder of a Japanese artist collective.

I control all visual elements and promotional materials, including album covers, posters and websites. Together we book local and international talent and organise music and art events in Tokyo, Osaka, Seoul and others.

2014 - 2016

PHASE3 (NZ) / ART DIRECTOR / WEB SPECIALIST

Oversaw various design and branding projects; Logo design, packaging and advertisements. Designed and developed websites. Worked with clients to create a brand identity.

2013-2014

STUOVEST (IND) / LAYOUT ARTIST / ILLUSTRATOR

I was in charge of layout for a newspaper and was the receiver of a design award for my layout design. Also created illustrated comics for the newspaper and assisted in photo editing.

2011-2012

MEDIA CORP (NZ) / GRAPHIC / WEB DESIGNER

Undertook various design projects designing and coding websites. Designing print brochures, logos and business cards. Working with clients to create a brand identity.

EDUCATION

2007-2010

DEGREE IN TRADITIONAL ANIMATION

Three years spent learning traditional animation techniques while honing my creativity and drawing/illustration skills. During this time I also attended life drawing classes weekly and studied advanced anatomy and drawing techniques.
